Celebrating spirit of womanhood

GET, SET, GO: Kimi Katkar

The Pune leg of Lavasa Women's Drive 2012 held recently, witnessed more than 150 cars and close to 600 women. The drive that celebrates the spirit of womanhood has an underlying cause of spreading awareness about women's cancer.

The cars were flagged off by actress Kimi Katkar, actress Payal Rohatgi, wrestler Sangram Singh, Scot Wrighton of Lavasa and Dr Geetanjali Agarwal of Galaxy Care Hospital. Kimi Katkar was overwhelmed by the creativity of participants who decorated their cars in innovative themes to promote various social messages.

Actress Payal Rohatgi felt that the cause was very close to every woman, as women generally neglect their health. Speaking on the occasion, Anuradha Paraskar, Sr Vice President, Marketing & Sales, Lavasa said, "We are delighted to see the amazing energy, spirit and passionate involvement of the participants."

The atmosphere at Lavasa was akin to a carnival with a chaat street, NGO stalls and activities like spa and water sports. The participants from Pune and Mumbai also displayed their skills through a unique talent show. Emraan Hashmi interacted with the participants and also met students from Christel House Lavasa, a school for children from the underprivileged background. The evening ended on a high note with Meiyang Chang's electrifying performance.
